

DAY 14. — OUR FAMILIES

“Unless the Lord builds the house, the builders labor in vain.”

PSALM 127:1

There is great power in the household. We are all formed by the home we grew up in. Did you experience love and acceptance? Did your family value giving back and inviting outsiders into their home? Did you have fun, laugh often, and spend time resting? Or did your home consist of instability, criticism, and/or abuse?

For many, the home is the primary place of discipleship that God gives you. What type of home are you building for your family, friends, and neighbors? You have the opportunity to build a legacy of health and discipleship for generations to come.

PRAYER:

Father, you gave me the family and home that I am in for a purpose. Help me to grow in awareness of what that purpose is. Bring healing and relief to the wounds that I carry from my upbringing and show me how to walk in loving sacrifice for the people you've put in my life today that make up my family. I pray for the salvation of my children, siblings, parents, spouse, grandparents, friends, neighbors and anyone else who I call family that doesn't yet know you. Give me a greater vision for my family and home. May it be a place of discipleship for all who enter. Come and build this house, Lord. Don't let my labor be in vain.
