

DAY 21. — CELEBRATING WHAT GOD HAS DONE

"And I am certain that God, who began the good work within you, will continue his work until it is finally finished on the day when Christ Jesus returns."

PHILIPPIANS 1:6 (NLT)

On this final day of our prayer and fasting journey, we have just one question for you: What has God done? All of us have sacrificed, denied ourselves, and sought God daily. Do you know him more? God is generous and loves to accomplish good and wonderful things in our lives, and he loves it when we pray bold prayers. But we always want to start with the ultimate good in every endeavor: God himself. Knowing him more and looking more like him outweighs every other prize.

We hope that this season brought clarity to your discipleship. How has God grown and reshaped what discipleship looks like in your life since starting this journey? What is the step of obedience that God has revealed to you? Maybe it's joining a recovery group, or reading the Bible in a year, or serving on a GO Trip. Remember that God's blessing follows our obedience.

PRAYER:

Father, thank you for the opportunity to know you and pursue you in a new way these past 21-days. You are worthy of my time and sacrifice. Give me clarity on what you are calling me into next and the faith to follow your leadership. Protect me from apathy now that this journey has ended. Help me to keep my commitments and to keep pursuing growth and discipleship moving forward. I've seen you work. I've seen you begin to do new things in me. I pray you would continue the work you began.
